For every defendant you have named in this complaint, you must state what he or she personally did to harm you. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Do not make legal arguments, or cite court cases or statutes. You may attach additional pages if necessary.

Your statement of claim must include all of the following information:

1. What happened to you?
2. When did it happen?
3. Where did it happen?
4. What injuries did you suffer?
5. What did each defendant personally do, or fail to do, to harm you?

I am deprived of my constitutional rights. due to (1) the lack of providing the "safety" and "welfare" of all people, (2) the concept of the environment is "structured" to provide a positive behavior management system, but prevents the fulfillment of another right, (3) some physical aspects that are grossly inadequate, (4) and the most efficient way of creating conditions and circumstances of lockdown that self-sufficiency and or improvement are impossible. (5) Threats of retaliation, non life threatening and then later death, for grievance process and the initiation of filing a civil suit, (7-20-2021)

This has been happening since May around the dates of March 28 to March 11 when I was denied the use of the law library. Later around May, an officer continued to harass me by calling me an "it," "boy," "thing," "that," or even "die," just to bother me after being redirected by the Major and Prison Coordinator. This led to her ignoring me, refusing to assist me, and telling me in an abomination to those for being a male to female transgender. I'm housed in the "hole" with quarantining inmates, where there is mold and blood on the walls. I am isolated from general population with no reason of notice. I am threatened by multiple officers on almost a day to day basis for using the grievance and appeal process, if not already denied by officers. This is an on occurring event in 8B3 (8th floor, B3 pod). As I may have been slightly depressed, my depression and anxiety increases, of shock, as well as weakening my breathing. The major made excuses to not accommodate my needs for alot of grievances and did not respect my wishes of confidentiality or legal request. The director did nothing but sent someone to speak to me. Later on

III. Injuries July 20, 2021 at 8:25pm, my life was threatened by a sargent placing me under imminent danger.

If you sustained injuries related to the events alleged above, describe your injuries and state what medical treatment, if any, you required and did or did not receive.

I was caused mental and physical abuse. I was consistently depressed and then began to get angered through anxiety leading to mood stabilizers and antidepressants being prescribed and or increased. Due to previously having asthma, my breathing got worse due to mold inhalation being prescribed an emergency inhaler at my request.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what you want the Court to do for you. Do not make legal arguments. Do not cite any cases or statutes. If you are requesting money damages, include the amounts of any actual damages and/or punitive damages you are claiming. Explain why you believe you are entitled to recover those damages.

I want the courts to drop and or lessen my charges, as well as pay 2.5 million dollars. $100,000 per attedgement, $500,000 per amendment right, and $500,000 for pain and suffering.

V. Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies/Administrative Procedures

The Prison Litigation Reform Act ("PLRA") 42 U.S.C. § 1997e(a), requires that "[n]o action shall be brought with respect to prison conditions under section 1983 of this title, or any other Federal law, by a prisoner confined in any jail, prison, or other correctional facility until such administrative remedies as are available are exhausted."

Administrative remedies are also known as grievance procedures. Your case may be dismissed if you have not exhausted your administrative remedies.

I was informed I would be checked back with in some cases, with the directors "charge coordinator," (Anthony weaver). Now with the Major, he would claim to clarify things up, assess my need, or lie to me doing nothing at all.

4. What steps, if any, did you take to appeal that decision? Is the grievance process completed? If not, explain why not. (Describe all efforts to appeal to the highest level of the grievance process.)
